

Welcome to C-Suite Bullshit Bingo

Lindsay Ball
Fractional CMO,
Board Advisor

This is a fun (and slightly painful) collection of confessional statements commonly heard across the C-suite — especially when pressure rises and certainty disappears.

Choose the phrases you hear most often, fill an empty bingo card, and see what it reveals about your organisation.

Bingo already? You may want to check the direction of travel.

Still searching? You might be doing something right.

Play it solo. Or better still — play it with your leadership team.
